Expenses/Tax deductions that may be claimable by your business.

Three Golden Rules:

1. You have spent the money yourself and you were not reimbursed
2. The expense was directly related to earning your income
3. You have a record to prove the expense

Accident insurance premiums.

Accounting fees. Preparation of income tax and FBT returns etc. including costs relating to investigations, objections and appeals.

Advertising expenses.

Agent's commission. Collection of rent.

Annual leave. If actually paid by the employer (but not on accruing liabilities).

Audit fees.

Bad debts.

Bank charges. Including debits tax.

Borrowing expenses. Claim in full if $100 or less, otherwise over the period of the loan or one fifth each year if five years is shorter commencing from the date finance is acquired.

Business assets

- List all business assets showing date of purchase, price, description & expenses.
- How the asset was acquired (i.e. hire purchase, lease or other finance method details & contract).
- Details of any repairs or maintenance to business assets during the tax year.

Business trips.

Business-related cost. If applicable, business related costs of a capital nature that can be written-off in equal amounts over five years commencing from the first day in the income year that the expense was incurred.

- Gratuities to employees. Recognition of past services.
- GST. Claims should be GST exclusive for those businesses that are registered for GST. The GST-inclusive price is deductible for those taxpayers not registered or required to be registered for GST.
- Home office expenses. Apportionment of interest, rates, etc. only if a business is carried out on the premises and where an area is set aside exclusively for that purpose.
- Insurance premiums. Accident insurance paid by employees, and other insurance paid in relation to a business or some income-producing property. Details of policy, provider, premiums & amount covered. This is subject to the prepayment rules.
- Interest paid. Statements for all loans owing by the business, with an end of financial year balance and interest paid.
- Internet and data access costs. Share investing and business websites. Also beware capital expenditure.
- Land tax. Business or rental premises. Deductible when incurred. The ATO has released guidance specifying that land tax is incurred in the year to which it refers, not when it is paid.
- Lease payments.
- Lease preparation, registration or stamping expenses. Paid by either the landlord or (a business) tenant (s25-20).
- Leave payments. Paid by employer (but not on accruing liabilities).
- Legal expenses. Unless capital expenditure, including discharge of a mortgage or relating to borrowing expenses. The nexus with ordinary activities of the business in producing assessable income will determine deductibility.
- Licenses to operate business. Prepayment rules may apply.
- Losses, current year. Loss claims by companies may be limited in certain situations. Losses by trusts are subject to trust loss provisions.
- Losses, previous years. Company losses brought forward may be limited unless the company can pass the continuity of ownership test or the 'same business' test; no time limit for losses incurred after 30 June 1989. Losses by trusts are subject to trust loss provisions.
- Loss (book loss) on disposal of depreciable assets.
- Loss on sale of property. If acquired before 20/09/85 for resale at a profit; if property is sold in the ordinary course of business the loss will be on revenue account, otherwise a capital loss arises pursuant to Part 3 of ITAA97.
- Loss through misappropriation by employees, or by theft
- Maintenance expenses
